

2011 Saving$ Expo

Parking and Transportation Tips (bring photo ID for both locations):

Wednesday, October 19 in Baltimore O'Connor Building, 201 W. Preston St.

Use of public transportation is highly recommended. Take the Metro Subway or the Light Rail to the State Center/Cultural Center stop. From the Subway cross Preston St. to the beige building which is 201 W. Preston St. From the Light Rail stop, walk across Howard St. to the entrance of 201 W. Preston St. (the beige building).

There is a small paid parking lot across Preston St. from the building and some on street metered parking.

Thursday, October 20 in Annapolis Goldstein Treasury Building, 80 Calvert St.

If you are driving into Annapolis, you can park at the Naval Academy Stadium lot. From Route 50 follow Rowe Blvd to a right on Taylor Ave. Look for the sign for the State employee entrance to the lot (push the bottom on the gray box and tell them you are a State Employee attending an event in the Treasury Building). Then take the free Shuttle (see directions below). If you work in the downtown Annapolis area, you should be within walking distance or be able to take the free Shuttle. There is a Shuttle stop near Church Circle. Walk back up Northwest Street to the Goldstein Treasury Building. There are 3 pay parking garages on Calvert St.

Note: All rooms and buildings are handicapped accessible.
